

Christopher Morgan Fulfillment Services Promotes Thomas Mauthe to Vice President of Operations

NEW BERLIN, Wis., Feb. 7, 2008 —Christopher Morgan Fulfillment Services announced today that it has promoted Thomas Mauthe to the position of vice president of operations. Mauthe was serving as the manager of call center operations for the company

Before joining Christopher Morgan in 2004, Mauthe was customer service manager for Banta Corporation's Literature Management Division in Menasha, Wis. He joined Banta in 1998 as an account executive for the company's packaging and fulfillment division.

"Tom earned this promotion on the strength of his outstanding work in running our call center operations, which has been a challenging task given the rate at which we have grown in recent years," said Chris Rebholz, president, Christopher Morgan.

Other positions held by Mauthe during his career include quality assurance coordinator for Fulfillment Specialists of America and warehouse and production supervisor for Warehouse Specialists Incorporated, both based in Menasha, Wis.

Mauthe resides in Waukesha, Wis.

About Christopher Morgan Fulfillment Services

Christopher Morgan Fulfillment Services, based in New Berlin, Wis., is a leading fulfillment, distribution and marketing company. Christopher Morgan was founded in 1997 to provide the e-commerce, financial, catalog and direct response television (DRTV) industries with fulfillment, assembly, distribution, customer care and integrated e-commerce expertise. The fully integrated company offers a fulfillment and customer response center, order processing, distribution services, parcel sortation, centralized return processing, custom packaging house, warehousing services and kit building and assembly.

CONTACT

Mark Braff

Braff Communications LLC

201-612-0707

mbraff@braffcommunications.com